

Articulate

These books have characters that are able to express themselves very clearly.

Loving

These books have characters that show love for others, animals, nature.

Motivated

These books have characters that want to do without anyone telling them to do. They just do to do.

Passionate

These books have characters that are intense and have a deep interest in an area of life, learning or a topic. They speak out and lead others in new thinking.

Optimistic

These books have characters who find that anything is possible if you just try. They don't believe in failure and see the best from their world.

Curious

These books have characters that have a desire to investigate and learn. They ask a lot of questions because they want to know.

Trustworthy

These books have characters whom are there for others and whom are reliable or can be counted on to be honest and truthful.

Humble

These books have characters that do not boast or are not proud and brag. They do things just because.